

The 2022 MLEOA summer conference will feature topics from the series Lobotomy of the Law. This series is designed as a thought-provoking class that will stimulate your legal imagination. Attendees will explore the limits of the law by analyzing legal concepts, swapping variables and stretching scenarios. This class is designed for a wide audience of law enforcement professionals, including patrol officers, detectives, administrators, or anyone else who enjoys challenging their legal imagination.